YOGIE AWARD WINNERS

Celebrating Outstanding Achievements in Youth Work

Ms Joy Burch MLA, Minister for Disability, Housing and Community Services, today presented 10 YOGIE Awards to a number of youth services and youth workers for excellence in youth work.

The YOGIE Awards, coordinated by the Youth Coalition of the ACT, recognise outstanding contributions to young people and youth work.

Some of the winners included (please see attached booklet for the full list of winners):

Outstanding Youth Worker Award: Steve Byrne

Steve Byrne most recently worked as a youth worker at headspace ACT, and has been involved in the Canberra youth sector for a number of years.

Outstanding New Talent Award: Maryse Pietersz

Maryse works as a youth worker in the Transition Program at Barnardos, which provides support and accommodation to chronically homeless young people in the ACT.

Outstanding Contribution to Young People Award: Carrie Fowlie

Carrie is the former Deputy Director of the Youth Coalition of the ACT, and is well-known in the youth sector for her commitment and dedication to supporting and advocating for young people in the ACT.

Lifetime Achievement Award: Andy Miles

Andy is currently the manager of Barnardos Transition Program in Canberra, and has been working with young people for more than 12 years.
